

Dear All,

St. Xavier's College, XRCVC - Lake Shore (Formerly Viviana) Extension is happy to announce an online workshop on the theme "Using Amazon.IN with NVDA" under its Tech Roshni series – A step at bridging the digital divide for blind and low vision persons.

- Shopping is your hobby, but you don't know the how to use online shopping website like others?
- Are hesitant to do the online shopping as you have lack of knowledge of how to use it with screen reader?
- Is your visually impairment come in the way of your online shopping?

With today's lifestyle changes, more customers from traditional shopping methods like exploring online shopping sites. Platforms have made it easy for people to shop from their homes by offering a wide range of products at their fingertips with detailed information, or shopping at any time and home delivery.

For visually impaired individuals, traditional shopping has its challenges, but online shopping platforms offer an opportunity to access and explore more products, contributing to their independent living. New users might need a bit of guidance to understand what online shopping platforms are and how to use them.

In this one-hour session we will explore the Amazon.IN Website, its accessibility using NVDA screen reader user to help to gain more knowledge.
