

Dear All,

XRCVC is happy to announce a One Day Offline training on “Android with Talkback”.

- Are you a recent convert to Android?
- Have you learned by self-exploring?
- Or perhaps a seasoned user eager to master its advanced accessibility features?

Join us for an immersive, one-day, in-person training session designed to empower you with comprehensive knowledge of Android's accessibility with TalkBack. Witness how this robust and continually evolving mobile operating system can transform your digital experience!

Spaces are limited—secure your place today and take the next step towards digital independence with expert guidance!

Eligibility: This training is exclusively for individuals with print disabilities.
